

Alexandra Grande

Alex Grande is a civil and employment litigator and partner at Holland & Hart. She advises employers through all phases of the employment relationship, providing guidance regarding state and federal workforce compliance issues and representing employers in court and before state and federal agencies to resolve claims of discrimination, retaliation, and wrongful discharge. Additionally, Alex advises clients in a broad array of business litigation.

Alex is a member of the ISB's Litigation and Employment Sections, the Idaho Women Lawyers, and the Employment Law Alliance. She serves on the Board of Jesse Tree (a local non-profit focused on preventing eviction and homelessness in Ada and Canyon County), is the Treasure Valley Representative for the College of Idaho's National Alumni Board, and Chairs the Holland & Hart Foundation for the Boise Office. She sometimes puts her ever-growing whiskey collection to good use by hosting tastings that benefit the H&H Foundation's charitable work.
